

Fate of Rec. Centre Unknown

If the Vulcan and District Recreation Society is finally forced to a standstill in its effort to build a community recreation centre complex power of the vote will have been a strong contributing factor.

At a public general meeting called by the society Wednesday, Feb. 16, 71 persons voted in favor of a motion to sell its assets (building materials, artificial ice plant and equipment of the previously purchased Calgary Meadowlark curling rink) and attempt to raise funds to begin a fresh start in the future. 61 votes were against the motion.

Passage of this motion was not binding on the recreation group but society president Pat Walker stated at the start of the meeting that the feeling of the donors and interested persons would influence the group in its present circumstances.

The society can now either sell the building — an offer has been made — or find reason to retain what it has and continue the proposed project.

In review, the recreation society, in May, 1964, purchased the curling rink from Bill Wearmouth of Bill Wearmouth Holdings Ltd., Calgary for $30,000. The building's value in the city was placed at about $200,000. Almost $23,000 was raised towards payment of the building and operation of the society and in the end a bank loan of $7,683 and an indebtedness to the holding company of $1,654.29 remained. The bank loan has since been reduced to $6,683. Although the by-law was defeated the Town of Vulcan has agreed conditionally to give $5,000 a year to the society towards completion of the project.

A firm offer from Bill Wearmouth to either buy back the building or erect it at Vulcan, sparked the call for the meeting. Mr. Wearmouth was in attendance and explained his position to the group. His offer was to build the structure as outlined by the group for approximately $127,000 or he offered to purchase it with terms that would give a 10 per cent profit on the exchange.

Four different sets of views came from the crowded floor of the meeting to be considered by recreation representatives Pat Walker, Gordon Brown, Angelo Murphy, Boyd McKay and Virginia Mitchell. There were those who wanted to go ahead with the plan of the centre first while others wanted the artificial ice portion completed first. Still others wanted artificial ice installed in the old arena and others wanted to sell the assets, bank the money and keep raising money towards future implementation of the present plans.

From comments offered by listeners it appeared there was fairly unanimous agreement for the project but in view of the lack of funds and no apparent source from which the large amount needed might come and because of the offer to sell it at a profit, this alternative was chosen.

Ensign Couple Observe 65th Wedding Anniversary

Bouquets of lovely spring flowers decorated the sitting rooms at the Peter Dawson Lodge, Vulcan, on Friday, Feb. 18 when Mr. and Mrs. George Flebotte celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Relatives and friends attended the open house during the afternoon and evening and at 5 p.m. the family enjoyed a lovely turkey dinner served in the banquet room at the New Club Cafe. Their family of three daughters and their husbands were present: Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Elston (Mable) of Spanaway, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Baden Brown (Ora), Ensign; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown (Ida) of Okotoks. Three families of four generations were represented and one family of five generations was present.

Messages of congratulations were received from Queen Elizabeth, Prime Minister Pearson, John Deifenbaker, Premier Manning, Lawrence Kindt, and phone calls from relatives who were unable to attend were also received. Out-of-town relatives who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Jr. and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lynch, Danny and Larry from Edmonton, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lawson and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rushmore, Mrs. Victoria Davies and Mrs. Victoria Bradshaw from Okotoks, and many friends from Ensign.

Vulcan and surrounding district residents called to congratulate the happy couple. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the room and a delicious lunch was served by the Vulcan CWL. About 130 guests signed the guest book. Father Marien attended in the afternoon to give the couple his blessing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Flebotte were married in Indian Orchard, Mass., in 1901 and came to Ensign, Alberta in April 1914, to farm two miles north of Ensign at the farm now owned by Vern Wellman. In 1921 they moved on a farm owned by Mr. Terwilliger south-east of Ensign, retired to the hamlet of Ensign in 1942 and resided there till July 1964 when they made their home at the Peter Dawson Lodge, Vulcan. They have three daughters, 12 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren. Altogether their family numbers 75.

In the afternoon a quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Jr. sang, accompanied by Mrs. Doris Lynch at the piano. Many joined in singing many of the songs of long ago.

Rev. R. J. Pelham on behalf of everyone present congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Flebotte and wished them many more happy years together. Everyone joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," concluding with a prayer and benediction.

Ron Northcott Seeks Brier Win

Residents of the Vulcan area will again have a more than passing interest in the outcome of the Brier Dominion finals this year as for the second time in recent years a Calgary rink skipped by ex-Vulcanite Ron Northcott will represent Alberta in the annual curling classic.

In advancing to and winning the provincial finals at Edmonton, Ron and his team-mates won 14 games straight. The Northcott rink is considered to be one of the top contenders for the Dominion title this year.

Brant Resident, Donald Shultz Dies Suddenly

(By Brant Correspondent)

Donald Voris Shultz of Brant, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren Shultz, died suddenly in Calgary February 11, 1966.

Born at Spring Coulee March 28, 1905, he came to Brant with his parents the following year when they took up residence on a farm just south of the town. He attended school in Brant and the University of Alberta at Edmonton. In 1940, he became grain buyer for the National Grain Co. and in December of 1965 the company presented him with a wrist watch for 25 years of service.

Dominion Finals in March

Vulcan Rink Wins the Alberta Legion Curling Championship

The Vulcan Legion foursome of John Wolfe, Ivan Haga, Gale Atkinson and Ray Wellman won the provincial Legion curling crown at Drayton Valley over the weekend, and the right to travel to Kamloops, B.C. in March for the Legion Dominion finals.

But victory wasn't easy for the Vulcan veterans as they lost only one game in the seven-team round robin playoff but this created a three-way tie for first place with Calgary and Innisfail who also compiled a 5-1 record.

In the sudden death playoff Innisfail drew the bye and Calgary and Vulcan played, with the Vulcan boys winning 10-8, and then they defeated Innisfail 9-6 in the final for the Provincial title. In an ensuing playoff Calgary defeated Innisfail for the runner-up spot.

This is the second Vulcan Legion rink to go to the Dominion finals as Harris Matlock, Ray Wellman, Roy McLennan and Jim Jensen travelled to P.E.I. in 1960 and came second in the Dominion playoff.

Other rinks represented in this year's Alberta final were Vegreville, Grande Prairie, Whitecourt and Yellowknife, N.W.T.

A year is more than 31,000,000 seconds long.

Rates Too High?

Natural Gas Rate Data Requested By Council

Natural gas rates were a subject of discussion at the February meeting of the Vulcan town council. The opinion was expressed that both consumption and number of consumers are probably greater now than anticipated at the time rates were set and, if this is so, an application for a reduction in the rates now being charged would be warranted.

The secretary was instructed to write the manager of the Lethbridge district for information regarding the rate structure, number of services and consumption on the Barons-Vulcan branch line.

Representatives of the Oldman River Regional Planning Board were present at the meeting to point out certain advantages that membership in the Board could bring to towns such as Vulcan. The cost of membership for Vulcan would probably be about $700 to $750 per year. Opinions of other towns will be sought and the matter carefully considered by town council.

Dr. F. R. Schneider, dentist, was present at the meeting. He expressed concern over the lack of fluorides in Vulcan's present water supply from the river and the effect on children's teeth. A lower incidence of tooth decay was noted when Vulcan's water supply was fluoridated. Dr. Schneider requested council to give consideration to the holding of a plebiscite on fluoridation of the water supply at the next civic election.

Parking regulations will be discussed with the town police with a view to making more parking spaces available in the business section, if possible.

Councillor C. E. Fulton was appointed as the town's representative on the Vulcan-Foothills Nursing Home Board.

The annual Court of Revision will sit at the next regular meeting on Tuesday, March 8, with Councillors Giles, Christensen, Richardson, Banks and Fulton as members.

The Department of Municipal Affairs will be asked to appoint an assessor for the town for the 1966 assessment.

Banquet Speaker Says:

Molding Character of Boy Is Father's Responsibility

A duty to God, service to other people at all times and willingness to obey the Scout law were impressed on Vulcan Cubs and Scouts by guest speaker Rev. W. Dormer at their annual father-son banquet held Saturday night at the Vulcan Lodge Hall.

One hundred and fifty boys and their fathers attended the event organized by the leaders with supper prepared by ladies of the group committee and served by members of the sponsoring Lions Club.

Following supper Cub leader Jerry Wylie introduced Cub Glen Bucholtz who proposed the toast to the fathers which was responded to by Frank Jepps. He noted the success found in Cubs being indicated by high membership of 80 but suggested parents could contribute much more to the movement by greater interest and attendance at Scout or Cub functions during the year.

In bringing greetings from the Lake McGregor district its president, Keith Clark of Carmanagay, reminded the boys that Camp Impesa, the new camping area near Waterton, will be in operation this summer.

Mayor Gerry Ness, speaking on behalf of the town, told the youngsters that people respect the Cub and Scout uniform and through their loyalty to Scouting and the education in citizenship this youthful career brings, these same youngsters can be respected all their lives.

In introducing a toast to the boys George Richardson said that while the format of Scouting is changing, the old challenge, "Be prepared and do a good turn every day" applies as much today as when the Scouting movement was originated by Lord Baden Powell in 1908.

Cub Bill Christensen replied to the toast, thanking fathers for their assistance and promised that the Cubs "will do our best."

Lion president Art Jones congratulated the Cubs and Scouts on their progress and gave assurance that Lions were interested in the boys and said some of the interest shown by the Lions stems from the fact that many of them were Cubs and Scouts themselves during their youth.

Norm Bucholtz, chairman of the local group committee was introduced followed by Skeeze Christensen who described a new look (Continued on Page 7)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Feb. 16th, 1966

Dear Sir:

Editor, The Advocate

I too have been very interested in the events of the past few weeks concerning the dismissal of a nurse from the Little Bow Municipal Hospital. I think it is more than just a vivid spot in the humdrum lives of us villagers. I think most of us live here because we want to and because it is in our best interest to do so. I think if we are honest we'll admit that most everything we do or are interested in is because of the way it touches us personally.

I draw your attention to the letter signed "An Interested Party", dated Feb. 11, 1966. This person seems to know more about the situation than anyone so far and I wish he or she would explain it all to the rest of us. This person insinuates much; but does come out with a blunt statement and I quote "In closing I state that this matter is not one concerning religion and it was bad taste to associate this freedom with the dismissal" unquote.

No one has said religion entered into it at all, but no one on the board has said it didn't! So how does this person have authority to state this? No one on the board has given any reason whatsoever to really explain why this lady was dismissed so how can this person state so vehemently that religion was not the issue. If the Board has a good reason for this why are they so hesitant to speak out. About 30 or 40 people were interested enough to attend the last board meeting to ask why and the Board chose not to throw any light on the subject at all. This was not a public meeting but these folks care and went with an open mind to listen.

When there are so many people who are concerned why can the board issue a statement?

This kind of publicity is bad for any hospital and surely a few well chosen words from the Board could explain the whole thing. Unless the board has something to hide why don't they speak out.

I understand that a representative from the Alberta Assoc. of Registered Nurses attended the same board meeting and did not receive any satisfactory reason for the nurse's dismissal either. Surely the board can see that people care and I hope they assume we have the intelligence to understand the facts.

The writer of the letter signed "An Interested Party" also states that the people who have written in to your paper are "absurd individuals." It is often easy to brand people who do not agree with yourself as absurd or a fool but I see nothing absurd in the fact that people are willing to stand up for what they believe in. I even maintain that there is nothing absurd in the fact that "An Interested Party" feels strongly enough to join the ranks as a contributor to the "Letters to the Editor". Thank God it is a free country and both sides can be heard. If only this were the complete truth — unfortunately the Board doesn't agree as they don't appear interested in "both sides of the story" as for the dismissal of the nurse was concerned. If I am wrong on that I hope they will prove it to me by giving us all the facts.

I wish there could be a Public Meeting — I hope the interested people — not prejudiced on either side — would attend in mass. One reputable person has said that they were told by a Board member that no board members would attend it anyway. Perhaps that is just one Board member's opinion but I would like to see what would happen if one were called. I think the Board and others might be surprised to see just how many now would volunteer their services on the board if that were necessary.

I would certainly like to hear more from this "Interested Party" because they seem to have an inside track on information that we are all entitled to.

I have many reasons to say thank you to Mrs. Minty and I do so now, but I do not consider myself a prejudiced person. I am concerned for the good of the hospital and the town and also for the Hospital Board. I think a well run hospital depends on the stability and interest of a good, dedicated board. If any of them consider it a "Joe job" they shouldn't be doing it. I think they should consider it a privilege to be chosen and try to live up to that thought. If they feel incapable for any reason no one will condemn them for stepping down.

—Sincerely,
"Troubled"Feb. 16,
Carmangay

Editor, The Advocate

Dear Sir:

Why don't they bring the whole thing out in the open and clear the air over this nurse situation?

The gossips are having a ball, the really interested people are confused and the Board must have seen by now that it is not just going to "Blow Over." Why don't they call a meeting, state their case and either resign or get back to the business of running a hospital, while we still have one.

Someone said the other day that maybe the county is behind it all and are hoping to use any excuse to take our hospital away like they did our school.

It's person against person, rumor against rumor and I think we've had enough.

Think of that poor nurse and what she's going through!

We all know she's the best of nurses. If we want her back let's just not talk. Let's act. Let's clean up the whole mess; get to the bottom of it. This silence treatment from the board is for the birds — Cuckoo birds.

If they don't feel responsible enough to us to tell us what's going on — replace them. We have a right to know the score.

—Disgusted

Vulcan, Alberta
Feb. 19, 1966

Editor, The Advocate

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my opinion on the Carmangay Hospital situation.

I believe the reluctance to take an open stand, by the hospital board, has firmly convinced many of us, that there was, or might be something underhanded about the whole affair. This may be completely false, however their actions have tended to make a bad situation worse.

I have myself, as well as my family been patients in the Carmangay hospital. The care and facilities were in our opinion second to none. This surely is the result of a willing and capable matron. I believe the hospital, doctor and people using this service are losing a fine and devoted employee.

I suggest that now the time has come for a complete investigation. Preferably by some able and responsible party not directly concerned with the hospital, board, or the party involved.

I am very disappointed to see that not one of the many letters written and published in your paper bore a proper signature. The letter from the present employee at the hospital excepted, signatures would have added much more stability and sincerity to the otherwise fine letters of complaint.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Vulcan Advocate for its time, effort and space contributed to the airing of this issue.

—Yours truly,
Charles E. Scott

LIQUID FERTILIZER NOT ECONOMIC

Several of our Short Course speakers said that Liquid Fertilizers are not an economic form of applying plant nutrients to cereal and forage crops in Alberta. At current prices, liquid fertilizers supply plant nutrients at more than five times the cost of nutrients in granular form. Although liquid fertilizers can be applied to the seed, to the row or to the leaves, none of these methods of application are economical. For example, if 25 pounds of phosphate are required per acre it will require 8 gallons of 10-20-10 liquid fertilizer at a cost of $22.00 per acre. This amount of phosphate as 50 pounds of 11-48-0 granular fertilizer would cost less than $3.00 per acre. These figures are arrived at by using liquid fertilizer weighing 15 pounds per gallon and costing $2.75 per gallon and granular fertilizer at $120.00 per ton.

The application of liquid fertilizer to cereal crops may present some problems. The required amounts of plant nutrients, for example 20 to 30 pounds of nitrogen and 25 pounds of phosphate, cannot be applied as a seed treatment. Seed treatment with liquid fertilizer can supply only a few ounces of nutrients where many pounds are required. On the other hand, applying liquid fertilizer in the seed row can supply sufficient quantities provided adequate amounts of plant nutrients are added say up to 10 gallons per acre. The application of liquid fertilizer to the leaves of cereal crops is limited in that the required amounts cannot be supplied entirely as foliar spray. Tests in Alberta have shown that liquid and granular fertilizers are equally as effective in raising crop yields when equal amounts of plant nutrients are applied. However, it has not proven to be economical at current prices of liquid fertilizers. Fertilizers should always be purchased on the basis of their plant food content and not on the price per ton. Nutrients in the granular form in Alberta cost approximately 11, 9 and 5 cents per pound for nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium respectively. The equivalent costs using liquid fertilizer at $2.75 per gallon for 10-20-10 nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium 60-60-60 and 60-cents-per-pound respectively.

Lomond and District farmers and their families are invited to attend a program on Father-Son agreements, Leasing and Renting, and Farm Incorporation. This program will be held on March 1st at 1:30 p.m. in the Lomond Community Centre. One week later on March 8th at 1:30 p.m. a second meeting will be about Insurance for Farmers, Estate Planning and Wills.

These two afternoon programs at Lomond are co-sponsored by the Lomond Lions Club and the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

CHAMPION

Penny Bloxham spent last weekend in Edmonton with her sister Sandra, the occasion being University weekend.

Congratulations to the Champion Junior High Curriers on winning the County Playoffs held in Milo last week — this was a forerunner to the South Central District Playoffs held in Carmangay last Saturday, Feb. 19. Once again the Champion teams came through as winners with the girls defeating Carbon in the final game and the boys defeating Gleichen in their final game. Those representing Champion were, Sharon Davey, Carol Sletto, Diane Stephenson and Beverly Rhodes. Jimmy Rupp, Peter Sanderson, Jerry Rhodes and Arlin Racher.

Wendy Rhodes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rhodes returned home on Saturday after having spent the past several weeks confined to the hospital in Lethbridge.

Mrs. Glen Rhodes is a patient in the Grace Hospital in Calgary. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended here.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Maisey and girls of Herrington were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Groves.

Congratulations to Lynda Holm on winning the Queen contest held at County Central High. The Queen was crowned at the Valentines Ball held in the school Auditorium on Friday evening.

A record hop was held in the Champion School Auditorium on Friday evening where Sharon Davey was crowned Queen of the Champion Junior High and Arlin Racher was crowned King of the Junior High. Congratulations to both are extended by friends.

Correction of last week's news: Mrs. Arnstead is not in the hospital in Calgary.

HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Champion Home and School held its regular meeting Monday, Feb. 21.

Mr. Petkau explained how the new approach to mathematics enables a child to understand the fundamental principles rather than memorizing processes.

The parents were then divided into two groups. Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Anderson demonstrated the math program in the elementary grades. Mr. Petkau met with the parents of Junior High students and presented a brief picture of what those students are learning.

All of those present agreed that the evening had been very worth while and informative. Many questions which had been concerning them were answered and a new understanding was gained. A number of parents expressed a desire for further instruction of the same type.

The Home and School members were urged to support the Association by attending the musical evening to be presented by the Raymond Cavaliers' Chorus, Friday, March 25.

ICE CARNIVAL

An Ice Carnival sponsored by the Champion Lions Club was held on Saturday evening in the local arena. A large crowd was on hand to enjoy an evening of fun.

The evening was opened by the local Bantam team, and the 10-and-under team playing hockey. Races then took place with all ages of boys and girls taking part.

The figure skating classes under the leadership of Mrs. Roberta Davis then took the ice to show the progress that has been made this winter in this sport. Mrs. Davis and her daughter Mary Ann then danced to music on their skates.

Broomball saw the Carmangay Lions and the Champion Lions out. The game ended with the score tied. Two clowns added a great many laughs to the evening. Motor bike races, which proved hilarious to the crowd and likely bruises to their riders, brought the evening to a close.

LADIES AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion met in the Legion Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 8, with 14 members in attendance. Mrs. C. J. Versluis and Mrs. Don Versluis were installed as new members.

It was decided that the ladies would serve coffee and sandwiches at the Deimert sale on March 21. It was also decided to hold a bake sale in the Hotel dining room on March 5.

A book will be purchased for the Public Library in memory of Olive Howerton who served the Ladies Auxiliary as their secretary for 10 years.

A discussion was held on the amount that was to be charged for catering for a banquet and it was decided to keep the price in line with other organizations. President Betty Sletto then named her new committees for the year.

After adjournment coffee and lunch were served. The tea raffle was won by Mrs. Henrietta Versluis.

Vocal Recital Features Linda Flitton

show and stage productions interspersed with songs in the modern style. Tickets are now available from members of the Couples Club.

The 18-year-old Linda Gay Flitton, formerly of the Champion-Vulcan district, has been in Calgary for the past four years ardently pursuing her musical career. She has been studying voice with Mrs. E. Higgin, piano with Dr. Gladys Egbert and music theory with Mrs. C. J. Ford. She will receive the Toronto Conservatory degree in piano and singing and the Western Board vocal degree in June.

While in Calgary, Linda Gay has won numerous silver medals from both boards of music for highest marks in provincial examinations. She was recently guest artist at the Awards Night held in Edmonton.

A consistent winner of scholarships and trophies in music festivals, Linda Gay last year received eight firsts in vocal classes. She has received highest vocal mark in her own age group since her first festival entry which has entitled her to receive the Birks Trophy four consecutive years. This past season, she also captured trophies from Calgary and Edmonton for the Junior Leader class and was the recipient of the Galli Curci Scholarship and Blaine Chapman Trophy.

Of late, scholarships have played a major role in broadening her musical experience. During the past year she has won scholarships from the Western Board of Music, Ford Centennial Foundation, Cultural Branch of Gov't of Alberta, Van Cernical, Calgary Theatre Singers, Queen Elizabeth and the Banff School of Fine Arts where she attended their summer courses for the past two seasons. Here she studied opera and took private lessons under Dr. Vinci of Toronto. She is presently attending university taking English and French and teaching thirty students piano, voice, guitar and tapdancing in her spare time.

COUNTY CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL HI-LITES

Friday night, Feb. 18, will be remembered by many people for a long time to come. Linda Holm, however, will probably remember this particular night for the rest of her life.

The occasion was the Annual CCHS Queen Contest and Valentine's Ball and "the Snow Queen 1966" was Linda Holm. Linda, who makes her home at Champion, is a grade 11 student and now is in her second year at County Central. The two other contestants were Kathy McNiven, grade 10, and Norma Christensen, grade 12. Last year's Queen, Susie Robertson, was present to crown the new Queen.

The dance itself and the accompanying ticket sales on the Queen contestants were both outstanding successes as far as students are concerned. The "Swinging Bachelors" from Calgary provided the music for the dance and there seemed to be no end to their talents. They were one of the best bands to ever play at CCHS. Proceeds from contestant ticket sales well exceeded the objective and will be forwarded to the fund for the H. H. Mumby Memorial Scholarship. The students wish to thank all those who so kindly gave their support.

Central's senior boys' basketball team handily won its side of the league semi-finals last week as it defeated Blackie 129 to 77 in a two game total point series. In the first game, last Wednesday night, Central won 73 to 47. In the second game, played Friday night after school they again won, 56 to 3. The boys now enter the league finals against Turner Valley.

Brant Resident

He was secretary of the Brant United Church Board for 10 years and at the time of his passing was serving on the Board of Stewards of the church. He was an active member of the Plainview IOOF Lodge, Blackie and held the office of treasurer of the Brant Parents' Association when Scouting and Guiding were active in Brant. He had been secretary of the Men's Curling Club as well as a curler himself.

He is survived by his wife Mabel, and two sons, Jack and Bill. Services were conducted at the High River United Church on Tuesday, Feb. 15 by Rev. M. Johnson, W. Short and by the Oddfellows' Lodge.

The honorary pallbearers were J. M. McKay, F. Olsen, G. Fox, W. Buchanan, G. Levell, A. Lawson, C. Dougherty, J. McDuffy, C. Fletcher and I. Tolley. The active pallbearers, his Lodge brothers, were: G. Laycraft, J. Stier, R. Bateman, W. Farrell, B. Ball, and E. Prater.

The esteem in which Don was held by those who knew him was shown by the huge crowd which attended this service. Interment was in the Highwood Cemetery.

Fate Of Centre

the difficulty experienced in raising the original $23,000, the defeat of the plebiscite, inability of the group to clear its debts, much less consider the $127,000 offer. On the other side a spokesman called attention to the fact that the artificial ice plant now owned by the group would have a value of $40,000 if it had to be purchased and installed new and that while the cost of going ahead with the building seemed high now, duplication of this plan in future from the beginning could run to $250,000. Also it was argued, young people in cubs, scouts and the guide movement are in serious trouble through lack of accommodation and have presumably been holding up expansion plans of their own in hopes they might be able to make use of part of the centre.

The problems of upkeep on the proposed centre, competition from other towns, use of the building and future of the town without something of this nature were all aired at the meeting.

Following the vote, as the crowd filed from the hall, one man gave more than vocal support by becoming a $100 donor to the recreation society.

Molding Character

which is to come to Cubs and Scouts, not only in design and color of uniforms but in an enlarged program aimed at various age groups to accommodate the changing needs of the growing boys. The possibility of starting a 14 to 16 year age Ventures group this fall was mentioned by Mr. Christensen. This group lends itself to an almost unlimited variety of hobbies or interests which may be studied and calls for an advisor, rather than a leader, to look after general supervision of the boys.

"I envy you boys here with your fathers tonight," said Rev. W. Dormer as he opened his short address. He lightly reviewed his own childhood which differed from most boys' in the early death of his father which gave him a greater appreciation of the father-son relationship shown at the banquet. Rev. Dormer urged the boys to remember their duty to God through pursuit of religion and a respect and loyalty for their fathers who provided food, shelter, education and companionship during much of their life.

Then to the fathers the speaker suggested they must set an example to their sons. Teachers, he said, can instruct in the abc's, but they can't induce a sense of responsibility, good morals and spiritual values into the boys. He felt fathers should ask themselves, "Would my boy choose me for a friend if I were not his father?"

In closing Rev. Dormer warned his adult listeners, "Your boy must look up to you . . . the responsibility is yours for what your boy becomes."

During the program a number of 1st and 2nd class stars and other awards were presented by leaders Glen Graham and Jerry Wylie.

Miss Chell of the High River teaching staff spoke on the effect of home environment on a child's creative ability. She said that the simplest things, such as cardboard boxes, blocks, pencils and paper are the best on which to start the children in using their hands creatively. Some children are impressed by the details of the figures drawn, others by the actions involved, and still others by the hands which are the important part to them. She said that little children should not be graded on their art work as A, B or C. This should be their spare time enjoyment. An open discussion followed.

DAWSON — COLLIER

Bride's Father Officiates At Carbon Wedding

Christ Church, Carbon, was the setting for a quiet wedding on Saturday, Nov. 22, when Diane Doreen, only daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Collier, Carbon, became the bride of Dr. David Thomas Dawson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Irwin, Brant. The father of the bride officiated at the five o'clock candlelight service.

Mrs. Frances McCulloch of Acme was the organist and accompanied her sister, Mrs. Doreen Van Lare who sang the Lord's Prayer during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her eldest brother, David, the bride entered the church to the strains of Bach, Jesu Joy. She was attired in a white satin empire line gown featuring lily point sleeves and train, the waist accented with embroidery. A shoulder length cloud veil fell gracefully from a crown of crystals and pearls. Her cascade bouquet of yellow and tulle roses entwined with ivy completed the picture.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Esther Heldbrecht of Saskatoon, wearing a 'full length gown of gold colored peau de soie with matching accessories and carrying a bouquet of white carnations. Attending the groom was Dr. Daniel Hasinoff of Edmonton, and Tom Irwin and Tom Collier, brothers of the couple, ushered the guests to their places.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a rose lace ensemble with a white carnation corsage.

The mother of the groom chose a silver and blue brocade sheath gown with jacket and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Carbon Civic Centre with the ladies of the Christ Church WA catering. The toast to the bride was proposed by Russell Collier, uncle of the bride, and congratulatory telegrams were read by the best man, Patricia Irwin and John Collier, youngest brothers of the bride and groom were in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride changed to a grey double-knit suit and wore a corsage of red roses. The happy couple will reside in Edmonton where the groom is on the staff of the Royal Alexander Hospital at present.

A French prov. (author unknown) "THE PRESENCE OF A DOCTOR IS THE FIRST PART OF A CURE"

When using home remedies or patent medicines it is important to understand their benefits and limitations. Taken at the first sign of a head-ache, stomach-distress, muscular pain, etc., relief sometimes comes quickly from an uncomplicated condition.

But, if any of the symptoms return, then self-treatments though giving temporary relief, may be masking an accumulating problem that may eventually endanger your life. To cure, a physician's diagnosis of the cause is essential. One should be consulted as soon as possible.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?
